

Revenue Direct

Revenue Direct is a division of the registrar Dotster which has a long history as a discount registrar, dating back to the era when Network Solutions dominated the industry. They feature custom lander service "gives you the flexibility to customize and add content to your landing pages quickly and easily".

You now have the ability to use your own images on your Revenue Direct landing pages. The personal image hosting feature will allow you to:

- Host up to 250 of your own images for use on your RevenueDirect landing pages.
- Accepted image formats include .jpg, .gif, .bmp, and .png.
- Further customize the look and feel of your RevenueDirect landing pages.

Revenue Direct now pays out twice a month.
